

UBIFRANCE IS HIRING A JUNIOR APPLICATION VALIDATION ANALYST FOR VOLUNTEER FOR INTERNATIONAL EXPERIENCE FROM 12 TO 24 MONTHS.

Date : 01/02/2015

Job reference : 69780-8064440

Function : Information systems / Telecom (Development Engineer)

Type of contract : Volunteer for International Experience

Localisation : BRUXELLES 00000, FR

Contract duration : From 12 to 24 months

Level of studies : Bachelor's Degree

Years of experience :

Company description :

Le Volontariat International en Entreprise (VIE) est régi par la loi n° 2000-242 du 14 mars 2000 relative aux volontariats civils. Il s'adresse aux jeunes de nationalité française ou ressortissants des Etats Membres de l'Espace Economique Européen âgés de 18 à 28 ans.

Job description :

Poste et missions:

You execute validation of computerized systems for Baxter R European sites, to ensure accuracy of data generated by critical Science Engineering data systems, including those used for product registration submission.

You develop foundational understanding of the relationship between business processes and IT systems usage.

- You utilize basic awareness of business rules and concepts, assist in moderately complex projects to determine systems requirements and identify alternative solutions.
- You develop understanding of System Development Life Cycle (SDLC) principles and applies them to perform routine software applications analysis project activities.
- You build knowledge of documentation and testing requirements.
- You are able to develop software applications documentation according to predefined requirements. You are capable of defining basic technical testing scenarios.
- You demonstrate understanding of the fundamental concepts of software testing and how they apply to the SDLC process.
- You are able to apply basic testing techniques to SDLC projects, including regression testing.
- You drafts and revise test plans and script to test system according to business and security requirements.
- You demonstrate the ability to properly document software testing results according to defined procedures and documentation requirements.
- You write and maintain IT procedures to sustain the IT operations, as needed.
- You work on improvement initiatives as needed.
- You develop understanding of Baxter's outsourcing strategy, as well as service/quality goals and performance parameters. You build knowledge of how Baxter policies impact vendor compliance requirements

Required profile :

Profil:

- You have a Bachelor in IT
- You have good understanding of scientific business and data requirements
- You are able to challenge probe
- You have good self-organizational skills and good communication skills
- You have strong interpersonal skills and demonstrated ability to work in team environment
- You are fluent in English, written and spoken. French is an asset.
- You have knowledge in validation (GAMP, CSV...), Quality systems knowledge and Knowledge of Pharmaceutical Regulations are assets.

nb: It is possible for the candidate to live in brussels and work in Braine L'alleud, like most of the employees do.

To apply : <http://apply.multiposting.fr/jobs/1536/8064440>